Young Ackerman and Hicox Found Living Together at Oakville.

DENIES KNOWING NICHOLS

Yet Ackerman Lived in the Same Town and Pedled Along That Street.

Hicox Is Very Swarthy, and One of the Burglars Is Described as Being Dark as a Mulatto.

Erwin Samuel Ackerman, for whom the detectives have been looking since the discovery and publication by the Journal of the fact that he was suspected of having some time ago written to a wealthy citizen of Bridgeport, Conn., a letter which threatened, if $50 were not given him, to commit murder and arson, was located by a Journal reporter last evening at Oakville. Oakville is a small town two miles from Waterbury.

Sia. September 10, 1706. She was married seventy-two years ago, and bore thirteen developed by all who know her. F. P. DAVISON.

According to Davison the advertisement was inserted to correct a case of mistaken forty-one, and there are two great grandchildren forty-one, and there are two great grandchildren.

Mrs. Schottman retained her faculties almost unimpaired until about four months ago. Last September, when she celeptrated her one hundredth birthday, she described her one hundredth birthday and bore thirteen the was married seventy-two years ago, and bore thirteen the part of whom are living—Julius and Morris Schottman and Freda Drobek.

Mcroding to Davison the advertisement was inserted to correct a case of mistaken are two great grandchildren.

Davison keeps an apartment house on Greene avenue, near Franklin. He said her one hundredth birthday, she described her one hundredth birthday and the correct a case of mistaken to prove the part of the fact that he was suspended to correct a case of mistaken to prove the provent and there are two great grandchildren.

Mrs. Schottman retained her faculties almost unimpaired until about four months agreed the provent are two great grandchildren.

Davison keeps an apartment house on Greene avenue, near Franklin. He said her one hundredth birthday are two great grand

A remarkable state of affairs was devel-oped by Ackerman's attempt to show inno-cence of the Nichols murder by proving an allbi. Ackerman lives about a mile from the raffread station in a large double house. With him, in one-half of the house, lives Edward Hickox. Hickox is a married man, but is not living with his wife.
In the other half of the house lives Fredarick, a brother of Edward. He also is married, but Hving alone. Both the brothers laughlingly said last night that women were a nulsance, and it was much pleas-medium height and build, and both wore suits of black clothing, except that Ackerman's trousers were dark gray.

Their appearance tailies in a great way with the description of the two Nichols murderers. It will also be remembered that at the robbery of the other Nichols, on hat at the robbery of the other Nichols, on lay 21, which there is every reason to be leve was committed by the men who did wraday's murder, the old man describes as of the criminals as being of such dark omplexion as to be almost like a mulatto. Both of the Hickox brothers have unawory reputations in the town. Both are away reputations in the town. Both are aid drinkers, and have been arrested for inhor offenses. Young Ackerman is looked poin by the townspeople as being slightly inbalanced mentally. Ackerman answered eadily regarding his actions an Wednesay and Thursday last. He said he had not been sighted at 9 o'clock last night. The El Rio's time from the New Orleans dock to the New York quarantine station was four days, six hours and fourteen minutes.

The best previous record from South Pass better that anyone should link it possible that he had had any tonnection with it.

Ackerman's AHbi.

Ackerman's Alibi. on Wednesday evening, and then came ome with Ed. Hickox. It was about 7 clock. I went down to Turner's grocery tore and then came home again. I do not suiember what we did during the rest of the evening, but we probably went to bed lived near them for three years, in a small country commanity? he was asked; but he plied that he did not see that it was.

Did you not go up and down that road at times peddiling medicines and stopping at house after house?

"Tes, but I do not remember that I ever called at that particular house," he said. The air of Ackerman throughout was that of a young man of conscious and ensy self-possession, of innocence and deprecatory of the fact that he had been unjustly sussected. It was quite different from that I ever after house after house after house and the said.

A meeting was held a few months ago in this city to assist in this movement; but the good sense of our American co-religioustry prevailed, and nothing has been heard of it in figure that the stope is the stope of the lands.

In American we server million of Jaws. Rassia has five millions, and one million are scattered in other lands.

by professional burgiars, for they would not have acted in any such way. They would not have acted in that way at all. They must have been green men."

He had been asked if he could refer to may one besides Hickox who might by any possibility give evidence as to his whereabouts between 8 in the evening and 6:30 the next morning, and replied that he could not.

At the most of Deposits is the second mortgage on the property will be foreclosed and the franchises will be sold to the Reorganization Committee, subject to the present first mortgage of $1.

Sold to the Reorganization Committee, subject to the present first mortgage of $1.

Sold to the Reorganization Committee, subject to the present first mortgage of $1.

Sold to the present first mortgage of $1.

At the end of the interview he reintro-duced the subject himself, and sald: "Isn't it odd that I can't make a better showing about where I was from 7 o'clock on Welnesday night till 7 o'clock Thursday to Celebrate Her One Hundredth Birthday.

SAW A CENTURY PASS.

Mrs. Gertrude Bemak Schottman died Saturday afternoon at the residence of her son, Julius Schottman, No. 152 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street, at the remarkable age of one hundred and one years, she having been born at Gratz, Prus-Erwin Samuel Ackerman, for whom the sia. September 10, 1796. She was married

DR. GIBBS HAS DONE IT.

Dodged His Zealous Friends, the Reporters, and Made Mrs. Seaton His Wife at Stamford, Conn.

Dr. John Wilson Gibbs, of this city, was married on Saturday afternoon at Stamford to Mrs. Mary E. Seaton, formerly of Callanter keeping bachelor hall.

The men do their own cooking and house keeping, except what is done by Mrs. Hickox, their mother, who is a widow living in the second house from them.

Resemble the Murderers.

Young Ackerman, who says he is not quite nineteen years old, is cool and selfpossessed. His face is pale, and he has large brown eyes. He walks with his head inclined slightly forward. He and Edward Hickox work together in the pin factory of Seymour Smith & Son, at Oakville.

Hickox is twenty-six years old. He is very dark complexioned, with black mustache and black below the formation of the morning at the usual hour.

Schon, formerly of Callfornia. Mrs. Gibbs number one secured a divorce from the Doctor, according to his own admission, would have remarked the pay for the watch-fulness of newspaper reporters, who, however, he still declares, are his friends. His movements have even bordered on the mysterious, and at all hotels where he has stopped newspaper men have been barred.

Yesterday he and his bride visited Mrs. John C. Mather, of North Main street, Hartford, Conn., who is related to the present Mrs. Gibbs.

The happy couple left Hartford last night at 7:10 for New York, and the Doctor, according to white Plains, and the Doctor, according to his own admission, would have remarked the pay but for the watch-fulness of newspaper reporters, who, however, he still declares, are his friends. His movements have even bordered on the mysterious, and at all hotels where he has stopped newspaper men have been barred.

Yesterday he and his bride visited Mrs. John C. Mather, of North Main street, Hartford, Conn., who is related to the present Mrs. Gibbs.

The happy couple left Hartford last night at 7:10 for New York, and the Doctor, according to his own admission, would have remarked the pay but for the watch-fulness of newspaper reporters, who, however, he still declares, are his friends. His movements have each full several to he and the post of the pay but for the watch-fulness of newspaper reporters, who, ho very dark complexioned, with black mustache and black hair. Both men are of EL RIO BEATS A RECORD.

Steams from New Orleans to This Port in 3 Days 23 Hours 37 Minutes, Beating Best Previous Time.

The record for fast time between New Orieans and this port was broken by the Morgan Line freighter El Rio, which ar-

"I worked at the factory until 6 o'clock 'DOLLIE' M'CARTHY'S FUNERAL.

Stop Her Tormentors from Jeering at Her.

a Brooklyn newspaper yesterday:
MRS. MARY DOMINICK, the widow of Francis Dominick, has been a guest of my house, the Norwood, Nos, 352 and 354 Greens ave., since last March; Mrs. Dominick is tall, dark complexion, black eyes and hair and weighs about 180 pounds; I have found ber a lady in every respect; Mrs. Dominick's sister, Mrs. Marsden, No. 766 Quincy st., is tall and slight and resembles her in features; she is refined, intelligent and beloved to by all who know her. F. P. DAVISON.

According to Davison the advertisement was inserted to correct a case of mistaken es

J. P. MORGAN WILL ACT. IT

Agrees to Reorganize the Madison Square Garden Property for the

A new company will then be incorporated with a capital stock of $1,250,000, twothirds common and one-third preferred.

The plan of reorganization includes the SHE IS ONLY HER SISTER, Issue by the new company, in payment for GREET NEW YORK BOYS. the property and franchises, of $300,000

The $300,000 second mortgage income The $300,000 second mortgage income bonds are to go to the persons who advance the needed capital to run the company. The $750,000 of preferred stock is to go to depositors of the present second mortgage bonds, and the $500,000 common stock to the stockholders who deposit their stock according to the demand of the Reorganization Committee in proportions of one to four.

Having a Good Time.

Having a Good Time.

Hartgari.

The society held its principal festivities in the Central Opera House, in Sixty-seventh street, near Third avenue. At 10 a. in. there was a reception, and in the evening a banquet. This morning there will seadly down upon them. The vessel was the old sloop of war Portsmouth, bearing Brookyn lodges will have a parade, the fest to conclude with a kommers at Turn the long of the East of the New Jer-MAKES MANY CONTRADICTIONS. Mrs. Gertrude Bemak Schottman Lived The following advertisement appeared to pany. The $750,000 of preferred stock is to Naval and yachting men in the vicinity go to depositors of the present second mort-gage bonds, and the $500,000 common stock terested resterday afternoon in a great Regards and Hopes They Are Having a Good Time.

Erank K. Sturgis and W. C. Gulliver, a committee recently appointed at a meeting of the stockholders, have sent out a notice to the holders of second mortgage bends and stock of the company. They say the company has never entend a net profit over all fixed charges except in 182-3 and in 1895-0. During the fast fiscal year it was obliged to default in the payment of interest due on its first and second mortgage bends and sources on May 1, and will be obliged to default in the payment of interest due on its first and second mortgage bends on May 1, and will be obliged to default in the payment of interest due on its first and second mortgage bends on May 1, and will be obliged to default in the present of No.

a great deal of annoyance.

Davison keeps an apartment house on Greene avenue, near Franklin. He said limit the payment of its interest alone $107,500.

It will, moreover, owe $100,000 for taxes the said when saids roll, it. I., was passed, the bonds on May 1, and will be obliged to default in the payment of its interest on Kovember 1 next, which will make its debt on that date for interest alone $107,500.

It will, moreover, owe $100,000 for taxes the said with be obliged to default in the payment of its interest on Kovember 1 next, which will make its debt on that date for interest alone $107,500.

Stayton." The signal men of the Ports-

Its Fiftieth Anniver-

One of the oldest and most flourishing societies in America, the Harugari, yesterday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its organization. Three of the founders are still alive. They are Philip Merkle, Friedrich Germann and Peter Schnatz.

From a dozen members the organization has grown into the thousands, and has more than any union of its kind working for the benefit of German Americans emi-The record shows they have distributed more than $5,000,000 to the poor and sick of the class The state of the class grated to America.

of the city. The sufferers from the great Advertises the Fact in Order to bonds, $750,000 of 7 per cent non-comulative preferred stock and $500,000 of comthe floods in Germany and Lawrenceberg, Ind., benefited by the benevolence of the Coney Island. The victim was still breathing when taken from the water, and had respiration been stimulated by artificial means he could have been restored to conknow what to do, and when Ambulance Surgeon Gillen arrived the man was dead.

About 5 o'clock in the afternoon a man bathing in front of Balmer's pavillon was noticed to throw up his hands and sluk. He was some distance from shore, and it was with great difficulty that one of the attendants, assisted by several of the bathers, got the body ashore. Although the man was unconscious there was a faint pulse and his life might have been saved by proper treatment.

An old ramshackle house standing on the farm adjoining that of the well-to-do Ogden family he has been an ostracized and undisturbed recluse, who earned his living in a mysterious manner and was seldom known to talk to any one in the village.

Early Wednesday morning last, Buxton found Miss Ogden's pair of bay carriage horses in his garden. He corratled them and promptly drove them into his stable.

JUDGE RAPP IN A FIGHT.

Imagined Insult at Coney Island.

Judge William M. Rapp, of Newark, was arrested at Coney Island yesterday.

Arrested at Coney Island yesterday.

Joinder. "I'll give you $2." charged with fighting. Near the Iron Pier a stranger turned on the Judge with an a stranger turned on the Judge with an oath, demanding to know what he meant.

"Mean by what?" asked Judge Rapp.
"You trampled on my boy; you're a loafer!" suggily retorted the stranger.

"I never saw you or your boy before in my life," said the Judge.

"You're a liar! Take that!" cried the angry man, as he alimed a blow which landed full in the Judge's face.

The Judge attempted to defend himself, and Police Sergeant Spreckley was directed to the crowd by the screams of the women of the Judge's party. Each man accused the other, and the officer took both to the West Eighth Street Station.

The angry stranger identified himself as James Perriter, of No. 178 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street. Both men were liberated on ball.

Among the Catholics.

The School Sisters of Note Dame who have

Miss Geden berated the cowardice of the

The School Sisters of Notre Dame, who have establishments in New York, Brooklyn and some forty other cities, are to celebrate the golden jubilee of their arrival in America in this city about the middle of August. The services will last three days and will be held in the Chapel of St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum.

This, the month of July, is devoted to the Most Precious Blood. This devotion is a loving, plous remembrance of the Sacred Passion of our Holy Redeemer. It recalls to our minds Calvary's scene, when the sublime sacrifice of the cross redeemed us from sin and gave us grace to save our souls.

Sunday, August 15, will be a memorable day for the Catbolics of Williamsburg. On that day Father Sylvester Maione, the venerable pastor of Sts. Peter and Paul's Church, Wythe avenue and South Second street, and Regent of the University of the State of New York, will celebrate the fifty-third anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

A novena in hence of the feest of St. Ann. welcebrated the following a process of the feest of St. Ann. welcebrated the following and selections of the control of the feest of St. Ann. welcebrated the following and selections and selection of the distribution to the priesthood.

Yesterday, the feast of St. Vincent de Paul, the various conferences of that name celebrated the day by attending mass and receiving holy communion in a body at St. Partick's Cathedral at 0 a. m. In the evening a meeting was held at the church of St. Vincent de Paul, West Twenty-third street. A choice musical programme was arranged for the occasion.

The St. St. St. Vincent de Paul, West agoons, and she served as a nurse. For increment was arranged for the occasion.

thism and religious history.

The Varican has called upon the French bishops to supply information as to the different rinds of ecclesiastical music in their discesses, and the Pope is preparing instructions on the mblect, with the intention of inaugurating cerain reforms, including the abolition of female toices at liturgical services. While approving finstrumental music, His Holiness thinks it hould be limited to the use of the harp and be gentler wind instruments, the violin being liscarded as sensual and profuse.

Among the Israelites.

Three Days of Jubilation Will Mark SHOTGUN IN HAND

Easton's Terror Still Refuses to Give Up Miss Ogden's Horses.

Boasts, but All of Them Are Repulsed.

MISS OGDEN IS INDIGNANT.

She Will Appeal to the High Sherilf To-day and, if Necessary, to the Governor of Connecticut.

Bridgeport, July 25 .- Fred Buxton, the strange outlaw of Easton, still stands guard it his door, with shotgun in hand, defying every agent of the law who has been appealed to to take from him the two horses of Miss Ida Ogden, which he insists upon holding captive in his stable. Since Buxton first appeared in Easton two years ago and took up his residence in sclousness. As it was no one seemed to an old ramshackle house standing on the proper treatment.

The body was afterward identified by Stanford Vrooman, of Brooklyn, as that of his brother, Henry C. Vrooman, of No. 1639 Broadway, Brooklyn, single, twentyfour years old.

He reasoned that the Ogdens, who had never honored him with a social call, would come as soon as they missed their auimais. They did come, father and daughter, on Wednesday afternoon and asked if he had Wednesday afternoon and asked if he had seen their horses.

The Newark Dignitary Set Upon for an 'Yes, I've got 'em and you can't have 'em until you've paid me $50 damages,"

"Preposterous," was Miss Ogden's re-Buxtou's refusal was instant and indignant. He ran into his house, grasped his

This Michigan Woman Has Had a Unique Experience in Her Matrimonial Ventures. Decatur, Mich., July 25 .- Mrs. Lake L.

Glasford, of Muskegon County, has the unique distinction of having had five husbands, each of whom was a war veteran. Bhe is a well preserved woman of sixty-one at 0 a. m. In the evening a meeting was held at the church of St. Vincent de Paul, West Eventy-third street. A choice musical programme was arranged for the occasion.

There is Sunday-school at Sacred Heart Church, West Fifty-first street, every Sunday airling the school year for the boys right after to o'clock mass; for the gifts at 2 p. m. The sunday-school, which is in charge of the Sisters of Charity, assisted by a corps of competent cachers, follows the course of religious instruction pointed out by the third pleuary Council of Initimore, Besides the classes for instruction in prayer, etc., there are nine grades in catebiasm and religious instructions on the supply information as to the different inds of ecclesinstical music in their dioceses, and the Pope is preparing instructions on the subject, with the intention of langurating cer-

HE WANTED A WET DEATH,

Would Have Found It, Too, but Narraganset Pier Policeman Hauled Out the Bibulous Bather.

Narraganaett Pler, R. L. July 25 .- An exciting episode occurred on the beach today in the height of the bathing hour, when George Browning, a resident of the Pier, while suffering from a severe attack of alcoholism, rushed into the waves and at-coholism, rushed into the waves and attempted to drown himself.

Officer Champlin, the burly policeman who daily paces up and down the beach during bathing hours, sprang into the water in his uniform, forced his way through the crowd of bathers who had gathered there and grappled with the drowning man as he was being carried away by the undertow. After a sharp struggle Browning was carried ashore and taken to the police station to regain his senses at lelsure.

Famous Criminal Lawyer Dead. Memphis, Tenn., July 25 .- Colonel George Gantt, member of the law firm of Gantt & Patterson, ex-Congressman Joslah Patter-Son being the other partner, died last night at Cooper's Wells, Miss., aged seventy-four... Colonel Gantt was probably one of the greatest criminal lawyers in the South. He prosecuted Colonel H. Clay King, who killed David Posten, and defended Alice Mitchell, one of the principals in the celebrated Mitchell-Ward tragedy.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some seem riding last Summer, this with a lategla: "Oh, I did ride for the clots way she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some seem riding last Summer, this with a lategla: "Oh, I did ride for the same she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

In some she has but a short time to live.

Machinist Strike Spreads.

N. J., saturday evening, a tandem and single wheel were budy were chain and single wheel were budy were chain and single wheel were budy were chain and the state. Spreads that the rider is more or less bruised and latered.

Short seed of the premises if a dinitive distribution of the short of the strike of the machinists at all Spreads and seed wheeled wheeled were budy were made upon a left in boats as splential to the premises. He admitted that the premises if the p

A DYING MOTHER'S WISH.

A DYING WISH.

A DYING MOTHER'S WISH.

A DYING MOTHER'S WISH.

A DYING WISH.